WARM FIGHT NOW ON FOR A DRYER ALABAMA

Special Session of Legislature Convened Tuesday to Consider Prohibition and Other Measures.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 26.—Measures to make the prohibition law more effective promise to over-top everything else in the special session of the Alabama Legislature which convened here today. Under the constitution the Governor must specify all subjects to be considered by an extra session, and in his call he named sixty-five subjects. Nine of these relate to prohibition, ranging from a constitutional amendment for prohibition, to a measure declaring places where liquor is kept to be illegal. If any subject not provided by the call is taken up it must be done by a two-thirds vote of the law-making body.

Three constitutional amendments are to be considered. They are for prohibition, biennial instead of quadrennial sessions of the Legislature and the creation of new counties. A long and hard fight is expected on the effort to submit a prohibition constitutional amendment. A "safe and sane league" has been organized with the avowed purpose of working to defeat the submission and to defeat the amendment if it is submitted.

While the Legislature may not sit in special session more than thirty days, the Governor is empowered to issue a second call if the work is unfinished. It is believed he will have to do so, as it is not thought the work cut out for the law-makers can be completed within thirty days.

Railroad legislation may be reopened. One paragraph in the call by the governor leaves room for considering almost any character of railroad act.

Former Chief Justice Weakley has prepared a number of bills, as counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, and these will be presented early in the session. Judge Weakley is also special counsel for the State in the railroad rate litigation. He may prepare bills covering these subjects.

A fight is expected to be made on J. A. Kyle, secretary of the Senate. It is charged that a number of laws passed by the last Legislature were declared to be invalid, due to clerical errors.

Cattle Disease Attacking Many People in Louisiana

LAKE CHARLES, La., July 26.—Charbon, a deadly and loathsome disease which afflicts cattle and which has killed thousands of valuable animals in Louisiana, has attacked human beings now and many men are under treatment. In Leesburg, the county seat of Cameron Parish, eight humans have been stricken. Up to date no deaths have resulted.

Charbon has afflicted cattle for centuries, but has seldom visited this country. It was known to the ancients in Egypt and often scourged the Asiatic and Oriental countries. It is caused by a germ which enters the animal's skin through an abrasion. It multiplies and causes an inflammation which turns into a tumorous or cancerous growth which terminates in blood poisoning.

The disease first made its appearance about June 1 in two localities in Southwest Louisiana, along the Mermentau river, near Lake Arthur, and at Iowa, near Lake Charles. It was not detected in time and spread rapidly over neighboring parishes. Germs from the dread cattle infested the grounds upon which the animals had died and were thus communicated to other victims.

The United States Government, alarmed by the inroads the disease has made, has sent experts from the Bureau of Animal Industry to assist the local veterinarians in fighting the plague. They are urging cremation of infected animals and the vaccination of all others. Once an animal is infected there is no known remedy, but vaccination seems effective in making them immune.

Strict repressive measures were successful in several parishes, but in Cameron cattle dead of the disease were allowed to lie unburned upon the prairie and in the marshes and swarms of flies and mosquitoes carried the germs to other cattle. In this parish one-fourth of the animals have died. Since the Government expert has been in charge, however, the inhabitants have taken heart and conditions are improving.

Senator Taliaferro and The Pensacola Journal

The Journal of July 8th contained the following editorial:

Senator Taliaferro can usually give a reasonable explanation for nearly every position he takes in the Senate, and The Journal has always entertained a very high regard for the Senator's reasons as well as for himself.

We are curious therefore to learn what explanation he has for his attitude on the matter of a tariff on pulp and print paper.

When the amendment to place news-print paper costing less than 2½ cents per pound on the free list er voted for the amendment. The amendment was defeated.

Senator Aldrich, the Senate boss, and the recognized representative of the "interests," then moved to increase the House rate of $2 to $4 per ton on news-print paper, and Senator Taliaferro voted for the increase. Senator Fletcher voting against it. Senator Taliaferro was, we think, the only Democrat who voted with the Republicans on this measure.

In view of the fact that the publishers throughout the United States are a unit in demanding the removal of the tariff from print paper, that the

PALATKA COMING SOON. Two Games to Be Played Here First Part of August.

Manager Davis is in receipt of information from the Palatka ball team which states that they will be here for two games during next month, likely the 5th and 6th.

It is doughnuts to money that they cannot boast of the same crowd of "rooters" that went over to see the defeat of this team there, but they might as well come and bring as many as they can get, as we expect to hand them the same bargain that was given us.

Gainesville can always boast of carrying a larger crowd of fans away to attend a game than any other town in Florida, and it looks as if both Palatka and Ocala could come somewhere near the crowd that accompanies our team.

outside of the already protected interests are demanding a tariff on print paper, we should be glad to learn just what reason Senator Taliaferro had for the position he took.

To this request for an explanation Senator Taliaferro replies as follows:

Washington, D. C., July 10, 1909.
Hon. Frank L. Mayes, Pensacola, Fla.:
My Dear Mr. Mayes—I notice in your issue of the 8th instant an editorial, "Senator Taliaferro Should Explain."

I have tried throughout the consideration of the tariff bill to vote consistently for a revenue duty on every article of import excepting only the necessities of life. I recognize that the tariff is a tax, and I know no good or just reason why newspapers should be exempted while others are required to pay.

The present duty on print paper is $6 per ton, under which, in its several classifications, it paid a revenue of about $100,000. My vote was for a duty of $4 per ton or a substantial reduction.

With kind regards,
Very truly yours,
JAS. P. TALIAFERRO.

We do not think the Senator's explanation is satisfactory. It is merely an assertion that the tariff on print paper is a tax and that the newspapers are trying to be exempted from taxes which others are required to pay.

On behalf of every newspaper in the country we repel the suggestion and challenge the logic of the assertion itself. No newspaper objects to paying any proper tax for the support of the Government, but in this case the Government does not get the tax—it goes to the pockets of the protected interests which control the domestic paper supply.

By Senator Taliaferro's own statement it is shown that of the millions of dollars of paper annually used by the American publishers the Government derives in "taxes" only the paltry sum of about $100,000. This, in itself, ought to be sufficient answer to the Senator's proposition that this tariff is intended as a "tax" on newspapers for the support of the Government. It is nothing of the kind. It simply prohibits the importation of Canadian paper (as the paltry $100,000 derived from this source shows) and leaves the domestic publisher at the mercy of the paper manufacturers who control the domestic supply. And these manufacturers in turn proceed to "tax" the publishers to the amount of the tariff per ton, and put the "taxes" in their own pockets.

If Senator Taliaferro wants the publishers of the United States to pay taxes for the support of the general government by means of a tariff levied on paper, let him lower that tariff below the prohibitive point, make it possible for the domestic publisher to buy where he can buy the cheapest, and thus secure a revenue which cannot be secured while the American publisher is at the mercy of the domestic manufacturer.

We do not think the Senator's explanation explains—Pensacola, July

EX-PRESIDENT TAYLOR'S DAUGHTER DIES AT 85

Was Mistress of the White House at One Time and Sister of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

WINCHESTER, Va., July 26.—Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor Dandridge, daughter of Gen. Zachary Taylor, twelfth President of the United States, and sister-in-law of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, died at her home here Sunday, aged 85 years.

Mrs. Dandridge was the third daughter of Gen. Taylor, and was born at Fort Snelling, Minn., April 20, 1824, and therefore was 85 years old. Death was due to heart failure, following a long period of illness. She will be buried here tomorrow.

Mrs. Dandridge received her education in Philadelphia. At the age of 19 years she married Major William S. Bliss, who was a member of her father's staff in the Mexican war, and who later became his private secretary. After her father's inauguration Mrs. Bliss or "Miss Betty," as she was popularly called, became mistress of the White House. It was said of her that she "did the honors of the establishment with the artlessness of a rustic belle and the grace of a duchess." She had a wide acquaintance with public men of the day and was noted for her beauty and charm and the splendor of her entertainments.

After the death of her father, sixteen months following his inauguration, and the death of her husband in 1853, she spent several years in retirement, later marrying Phillip F. Dandridge, a member of a prominent Virginia family, whose death occurred twenty-eight years ago.

Mrs. Dandridge's eldest sister, Sarah Knox Taylor, was the first wife of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy. Another sister was the wife of former Surgeon Gen. Wood of the United States Army. Mrs. Dandridge's only brother was Gen. Richard Taylor, a hero of the battle of Winchester.

Orlando's Good Example In the Advertising Line

ORLANDO, July 26.—Among the practical ways in which the board of trade committee will advertise the town the coming season will be a series of articles to appear in the local papers. These articles will present the plain, unvarnished truth about the soil, climate, products, healthfulness, attractions and opportunities of Orange county in general and Orlando in particular and will no doubt be made to reach a large number of readers in the North through the members of the board of trade and citizens generally. Mayor W. H. Jewell has been appointed to prepare these articles and Gen. Jewell's well-known talent as a scribe is a guarantee that the work will be thoroughly and honestly done.

The first of such articles appear in the local papers this week and are already attracting attention.

The following brief extracts will give an idea of what the writer expects to demonstrate:

"The purpose that is intended to inform them all, and to control the writer's line of thought may be well summed up in the question: Why should people come to Florida? Why come to Orange county? Why come to Orlando to live?

"To answer these questions fully, intelligently, successfully, it will be necessary to go into details to some extent, perhaps many and various details which concern climate, soil, productions, health, matters relating to society, school, morality, religion and perhaps also matters political, matters of State and local government, racial relations, taxation, cost of living, and the prospect of making a homogeneous and prosperous people out of a complex population drawn from all the States of the North, nearly, and from other parts of the world. This looks like a 'large order,' but it is none too broad. We hope we shall be able to secure the data that will enable the writer to fill the bill.

"In holding out Orlando and Orange county as a very desirable place to come to for a home, we will not say that we can offer everything on the face of the earth, the summum bonum of all things desirable. But we feel justified in starting out with the optimistic statement that there is no other State, or country, or locality that can honestly and truly offer more, or so much, as we can, viewing the matter as a whole."

Fishing Smack Lost Three of Her Crew in Hurricane

PENSACOLA, Fla., July 26.—With her rigging damaged and her sails torn almost to shreds, the fishing schooner Minnie W. arrived in port last night and reported the loss of three of her crew in the Gulf hurricane of last Wednesday and the apparently miraculous escape of two others. Those drowned were Italians.

The master of the Minnie W. reported that he was bound for home, Pensacola, having been to the fishing banks about 100 miles east of Galveston, when he noticed the disturbance by his lowering barometer. He attempted to steer out of the storm, but evidently got caught in the very

The waves ran mountain high, and for an hour the crew struggled on deck, holding to the masts when the decks were awash. An immense wave struck the vessel, completely submerging her. Five of the men were wrenched from their positions and went overboard. A wave following cast two of the men back aboard, but the other three were never seen again.

Temporary repairs were made to the vessel when the fury of the storm had abated, and she started for home.

Fears are entertained for other vessels known to have been at the fishing banks. Between a dozen and twenty are out and nothing has been

ORGANIZED MILITIA AND REGULAR ARMY

AFFILIATION BETWEEN NATIONAL GUARD AND REGULAR ARMY.

State Officers to Be Furnished With Text Books—Government Invites
Suggestions from Militiamen.

(Jacksonville Times-Union.)

As an evidence of the increasing closer affiliation of the organized militia of the country and the regular army of the United States, is the following letter to the adjutant general of Florida, Gen. J. Clifford R. Foster, from Col. E. M. Weaver of the general staff corps, in reference to carrying out the wishes of the division of militia affairs, pertaining to the instruction of the personnel of the National Guard of this State.

The letter has been embodied in a circular by the adjutant general and published to the militia for its information, as follows:

Official Circular.

State of Florida, General Headquarters, National Guard of Florida—Tallahassee, July 1—Circulars, No. 3.
The following is published for the information of the National Guard of Florida:

War Department, Division of Militia Affairs, Washington, June 23, 1909.

The Adjutant General, State of Florida, St. Augustine—Sir: In carrying out the desire of the division of militia affairs to be of use to the organized militia in matters pertaining to the instruction of the personnel thereof, arrangements have been made to place in the hands of all combatant officers of the organized militia a copy of Studies in Minor Tactics and, for use in connection therewith, a pamphlet on map reading prepared especially for the needs of the officers of the organized militia by Capt. C. O. Sherrill, engineer corps. It is the intention of the office, further, to supply the officers of organized militia from time to time with simple map problems and with pamphlets on orders, patrols, advance and rear guards, outposts, combat, camping, camp and personal sanitation in the field, etc., prepared especially for the needs of the officers of the organized militia.

Subject of Map Reading.

The chief of staff has been requested to have the officers of the regular army who are detailed for duty with the organized militia during the coming summer take advantage of the opportunity presented to deliver a few talks on the subject of map reading, and to endeavor to impress upon the officers of the organized militia the necessity of devoting as much time as may be practicable to the study of these subjects with a view to better preparation for active service in the field.

The office of the division of militia invites, from officers of the organized militia, comments, suggestions, and recommendations, pertaining to matters of instruction of the organized militia which, in their opinion, would tend to increase the military efficiency of the organized militia; these comments, suggestions and recommendations to be substituted through regular military channels with a view to obtaining thereon, by way of endorsement, the views, opinions and suggestions of the higher military authorities of the States and Territories.

If so desired, and in order to save the offices of the adjutants general of States and Territories the labor and

SOUTH'S STANDING IN FOREST AREA

The South, with twenty-seven per cent of the total area of the United States, contains about forty-two per cent of the total forest area of the country. The forest area by States is as follows: Alabama, 29,000,000 acres; Arkansas, 21,200,000; Florida, 20,000,000; Georgia, 22,300,000; Kentucky, 10,000,000; Louisiana, 16,500,000; Maryland, 2,200,000; Mississippi, 17,500,000; North Carolina, 19,600,000; South Carolina, 12,900,000; Tennessee, 15,900,000; Texas, 30,000,000; Virginia, 14,000,000, and West Virginia, 9,100,000.

The South, it will be seen, has still much of the virgin forest of the country. This forest must be used, of course, in order to meet the steadily expanding wants of this section. It must be used in such a manner, however, that the very most may be made from its annual cut, while at the same time this cut is being replaced by new growth. In this way its timber will remain a source of perpetual wealth.

The importance of forest conservation to Southern interests is clearly understood by the people of the South. The future of the South is more nearly bound up in the plan of forest preservation, with its accompanying protection to watersheds, power-streams and wood-working industries, than is anything now before the people of this part of the country. Not only is the protection of the watersheds, which will some day furnish the power to run all manufacturing establishments in the entire South an important matter to the South but the industries depending upon the forest products will also be benefited by the protection thrown about the surrounding timbered area.

Illness, nervous tick or salt rheum can you say I can't bear the touch of your clothing. I can't.

STRONGEST OF THE DREW TEAMS OUT OF JACKSONVILLE.

Go Out and Loosen Up Your Lungs
Preparatory to the Great Games Later On.

The Olympics, one of the baseball nines of the Drew Company, and the very best set of players that come from the metropolis outside of the league, will be here this afternoon for one game.

This club has played several of the other towns of the State, and in a number of places came out victorious, and a real close game is expected between the two clubs in today's contest. Following this game the Sanford players, with their supported battery, who are scheduled for three games, and your lungs need opening for the cheering and rooting you are expected to do on this occasion.

Other Games Scheduled.

Palatka is coming for two days next week, August 5th and 6th, and along down the line is "Poor Ocala" for one big game. They are coming here with the strongest team that money can get together, for it is understood that the citizens have taken a hand in the affairs of the ball team down that way and raised a tremendous sum of money for the express purpose of getting a team that can "wallop" the "Kids."

Manager Davis, when informed of this move, stated that he would not be sleeping during the time and would be ready for the "bullies" when they showed up. He will not forget the ribbon badges which were so numerous on his visit there last week, and which many of them endeavored to hide from view after the game was over.

How the Burmese Made Fire.

One day a Burmese messenger brought me a note. While he was waiting for the reply I observed an object something like a boy's pop-gun suspended around his waist. On asking what it was he showed me that it was an implement for producing fire. It was a rude example of a scientific instrument employed by lecturers at home to illustrate the production of heat by suddenly compressed air. A piston fitted into the tube. The former was hollowed at the lower end and smeared with wax to receive a piece of cotton or tinder, which when pressed into it adhered. The tube was closed at one end. Placing the piston at the top of the tube, with a smart blow he struck it down and immediately withdrew it with the tinder on fire. The sudden compression of the air having ignited it. I was so much struck with the scientific ingenuity of this rude implement that I procured it from the Burman and sent it to the Asiatic Society of Bengal, with a short description of its uses—"Recollections of My Life," by Surgeon General Sir John Fyler.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

The absolute vegetable purity of S.S.S. has always been one of the strongest points in its favor, and is one of the principal reasons why it is the most widely known and universally used of all blood medicines. A great many of the so-called blood purifiers are really nothing more than strong mineral mixtures which act so unpleasantly and disastrously on the delicate membranes and tissues of the stomach and bowels, that even if such treatment purified the blood, the condition in which the digestive system is left would often be more damaging to the health than the original trouble. Not so with S.S.S.—it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and at the same time is an absolutely safe and harmless remedy. It is made entirely of the healing and cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks, each of which is in daily use in some form by physicians in their practice. Years of work and research have proven S.S.S. to contain everything necessary to purify the blood and at the same time supply the system with the purest and best tonic effects. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all other blood troubles, and it leaves the system in perfect condition when it has purified the blood. Book containing much valuable information on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

Micanopy people are a determined set, and through their efforts they are now receiving the mail on trains Nos. 9 and 10, which privilege has been denied them for some time past and which brought forth strenuous protest from the citizens generally.

Acting at once following the refusal to exchange the pouches, the leading citizens got together, and through two or three of their number made the request for this service, with the result that they now enjoy the double mail service and are enabled to get the same from twelve to thirty-six hours earlier than they did under the former arrangement.

Besides securing this privilege, they are anticipating making the train that is running temporarily in and out to the Junction, a permanent one, if the commission can assist them in their efforts.

Without any extra expense to the Government they have raised a subscription among themselves and are paying for the mail to be carried from the office to the trains.

Congregation Disappointed.

The members and officers of the First Baptist church were rather surprised on Sunday evening when they discovered that the Rev. L. B. Warren of Kentucky had failed to fill his announced appointment with the church.

The officers desire to state that it was no fault of theirs, and that they were as much disappointed as the large congregation that had assembled to hear the minister. Rev. Harry Shaw of Island Grove filled the pulpit and although a young man he delivered a very creditable sermon.

For you, when you need it. But the longer you neglect indigestion, the more you will suffer before Kodol can restore Good Digestion.

And, of course, indigestion if neglected long enough, brings on serious diseases in which Kodol cannot benefit you. Some of these there is no help for at all.

There are, in fact, very few ailments which cannot be traced directly to impure blood. And impure blood is always due to a disordered stomach.

Use Kodol and prevent Nervous Dyspepsia.

Kodol will effectually assist Nature to secure a complete restoration of good digestion. It does this by at once digesting all food in the stomach and keeping it digested, until the stomach is rested and can resume its own work. Kodol removes the cause—and the effect quickly removes itself.

When it is recalled that Apoplexy, Heart Disease, Cancer—and even Consumption—are due to poor digestion and poisons thus transmitted to the blood, and throughout the system—the importance of maintaining good digestion is at once realized.

We knew what Kodol would do before ever the first bottle was sold. If we did not know just what it will do, we would not guarantee it the way we do.

It is easy for you to prove Kodol—the next (or the first) time you have an attack of indigestion. And you will certainly be surprised at the results. It is perfectly harmless.

There can be no harm in trying something that may do you a great deal of good—when it costs you nothing if it doesn't.

Our Guarantee.

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty-cent bottle.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

Even Titusville has grown tired of being used as a cattle range and stock owners will have to seek some other pasture for their stock.

We have to take the world as it is and not as we think it ought to be, but that need not interfere with our efforts to bring the world up to our ideal.

It is reported that there has been too much rain during the past two weeks for the welfare of cotton, and that in some fields shedding of bolls is very noticeable.

Many Gainesville people are now taking an outing at the seashore or in the mountains, but we venture that the "stay-at-homes" are about as comfortable as any of them.

Jacksonville is not doing much for her baseball team in the way of attendance. Dixieland Park is a beautiful ball ground, but many people object to paying ferrage in order to witness the game.

G. Robert Ellis, who is now proprietor of the Varnada Hotel at Brooksville, writes The Sun, in renewing his subscription: "See that this is placed on mailing list at once, for we are lost without the paper."

The streets of Gainesville presented a more lively appearance last Saturday night than they have for many months. The old town is steadily forging ahead even in the "Good Old Summer Time," and the coming fall and winter promise to be the most prosperous our people have ever witnessed.

Some years ago there was a noticeable difference in the number of people to be seen on the streets of Jacksonville during the winter and summer months. But not so now. The place appears to be as crowded with human beings at the present time as it was at any period during the past winter, and business in every line fully as brisk. The growth of the city during the past few years is simply wonderful, and the future prospects are even more bright than those of the past.

Florida farmers will produce more corn the present year than ever before in the history of the State. In some sections of Alachua and Bradford counties as much as 65 bushels to the acre will be harvested, while we hear of a farmer in West Florida who claims that his average yield will be 125 bushels to the acre. Of course these results are an exception rather than the rule, but as a whole the average yield of corn to the acre this year will be far above that of any previous year in this State.

It is not very pleasing to the property owner who has complied with the sanitary ordinance to be compelled to endure the stench from the sanitary wagon standing in front of adjoining property where the bucket system is still in vogue. Every residence or business house in the sewerage territory should be connected with the sewer main without further delay. The ordinance required such connection to be made within six months, and entirely too much leniency has already been shown some property owners in this particular.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

Confirmation of the value of long leaf yellow pine wooden blocks as paving substance was received in New York a few days ago, when the result of an interview between William B. Levis, a director of the Market Street Merchants' Association, and J. G. Garthwaite, assistant engineer of London, who unqualifiedly gave as his opinion that he is in favor of wood blocks, and stated that they have given satisfaction in the English Capital.

Mr. Levis, who is on a foreign tour, and is intensely interested in having Market street paved with the best and most desirable material, said that Mr. Garthwaite stated that creosoted pine wood blocks have proven most satisfactory, and especially so where the traffic is the heaviest. It has given such good service, he said, that the streets in the suburbs have been paved with the same material.

Engineer Garthwaite laid special emphasis on the value of wood block as a street paving material, because, he said, it is noiseless, clean, sanitary, artistic, cool in summer, more durable than any other material and is easily kept in repair. In some parts of London, Mr. Garthwaite said, the same blocks have been in constant use for more than twenty years without requiring repairs.

The editor of The True Democrat witnessed the operation last fall of the tearing up of Belgian blocks in the city of Atlanta, and the substitution of square creosoted pine blocks in several of the principal business streets.

A very profitable industry could be built up in Tallahassee in the manufacture of these creosoted blocks. The demand is becoming great and will increase from year to year.

The city of Anniston, Ala., employs about a thousand men in the single industry of manufacturing iron pipe for water mains, and yet here is an industry capable of far greater proportions which could be established and most profitably operated in Tallahassee.

It is through employment of labor that cities are builded, and Tallahassee has the natural resources for many busy shops in which thousands could be profitably employed.—Tallahassee True Democrat.

Here is an opportunity for the Gainesville Board of Trade to do some work in the way of promoting an industry which may prove of incalculable benefit to the business interests of this city. If long leaf yellow pine blocks are as valuable paving material as above set forth, then Gainesville is the very place for the location of such an industry. Miles of our streets could be materially improved by the use of these blocks.

R. Hudson Burr is charged with responsibility for the passage of the law which prohibits the railroads from exchanging transportation to editors for advertising space. We are not prepared to say that the charge is true, but it was reported in Tallahassee that Burr went before the committee and argued against a provision in the bill permitting such exchange. We are informed that Mr. Burr was at one time a farmer, and we wonder how he would have liked a law which prevented him from exchanging the products of his farm with the merchant for his wares? Doubtless he would have considered such a law a damnable outrage.

Every pretender to a throne is a source of uneasiness to the man who actually occupies it. This was especially true in Spain, where several formidable Carlist rebellions in the last fifty years endangered the reigning house. By the recent death of Don Carlos the last Carlist pretender has passed away, and King Alfonso will feel more secure on his throne.

"Elegant" may seem a singular adjective to apply to a catalogue of a cattle farm, but it is justly descriptive of that recently issued by the Spring Park Farm, situated near Gainesville. The Times-Union of Thursday reprinted from The National Breeders' Gazette, of Chicago, an appreciative account of this great stock farm. The catalogue before us is a handsome booklet, printed on heavy book paper and illustrated with photo-engravings of scenes on the farm, its buildings, and portraits of its nest stock. A history of the farm and of the beef interest in Florida, together with advice to prospective buyers, all illustrated with inserts, is found in the first part of the book. The latter part is given to "Extended Pedigrees of a Few Foundation Animals." The whole is bound in a limp, imitation cloth cover, illustrated with appropriate designs. The Spring Park Farm makes a specialty of the breeding of Herefords and the illustrations show some superb animals.—Times-Union Short Talks.

When the Georgia Legislature enacted the prohibition law the saloon people all over the country charged that the manufacture of Coca-Cola "put up the dough" which did the work. So bitter were the saloon keepers against the Coca-Cola Company that they ceased handling the drink and substituted another, and there is scarcely a saloon in the country today at which you can buy Coca-Cola. Now it appears that the prohibitionists are to wage war against their alleged friend for prohibition of the sale of liquor.

When business men and corporations are tempted to make money dishonestly they would do well to follow the example of the old Scotch merchant who wrote in his brass-bound, leather-covered ledger, "O Lord, keep me and this bulk honest."

When one considers the influence a woman has in the home life to soften it and make it cheerful and pure, she should be encouraged by loving word and deed on the part of her husband and children.

Do You Get Up

With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver, or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

at places between here and that point and need the attention of the county road hands at once.

Mrs. George Dudley of Lakeland, who was a former resident of this city, is here on a visit to relatives prior to her departure for the West to spend the summer. She is accompanied by her interesting children.

Mrs. G. W. Moyers left yesterday for her home in Jacksonville after a pleasant visit of a few days with Mesdames A. W. Taylor and H. H. McCreary. Her many friends were delighted to have her with them again.

Thos. McCredie of Micanopy, one of the most prominent citizens of that section and a valued friend of The Sun, was among the visitors here yesterday. He says there is scarcely a home in that whole section that this paper does not visit.

Get DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. There are a great many imitations, but there is just one original. This salve is good for anything where a salve is needed to be used, but it is especially good for Piles. Sold by all druggists.

The Gainesville Furniture Company have a new advertisement in this issue to which the attention of our readers is directed. This firm carries a full and complete stock of furniture and house furnishings at all times, and prices are as low as is consistent with first-class goods.

Ed Carmichael, his son, Muller Carmichael, and Gus Haley, formed a party that came up yesterday from Ocala in Mr. Carmichael's new machine. They happened to a breakdown at Evinston and were detained there nearly the entire day, having to phone Ocala for repair parts before proceeding to this city. He has the State "skinned" on a whistle, which is enough to wake up the dead.

A Millionaire's Baby

Her Proposal.

"You've been counting me now for a number of years, George," remarked a girl to a young man. "Did I want to make a little heap your proposal?" "I-I am not in a position to marry," just yet," stammered the youth. "Why not?" "I'm waiting for a girl," interrupted the girl. "I was going to propose that you stop coming here and give somebody else a chance."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

Sunset in "the Red City" of Bavaria.

The numerous entrances to the old town of Rothenburg are guarded by beautiful watchtowers, which are inhabited by impoverished old women who rent their airy lodgings for a nominal sum. The red twinkle of their lamps high over the dusky streets of Rothenburg at night—for it is as mediaeval in its lighting as in many other ways—is very charming in effect. The walls of Rothenburg are a constant delight to visitors, who, by dint of much squeezing through narrow passageways and groping in darkness, are able to make a circuit of the city, getting glimpses on the way through loopholes of the green country outside. Wondrous views of the town are also to be had from many of the distant hills. At sunset the sight of its graceful towers and clutter of red roof tops is like a fair vision of romance. The city blazes for a moment in a fiery mist, then suddenly melts, mirage-like, in the gathering dusk, leaving a sense of something born of dream, the illusion of an enchanter's wand.—Rothenburg Letter to Vogue.

Thought She Had Arrived.

"I have moved into a perfect gem of an apartment on the sixth floor of one of those new houses," said the woman who paints china, "and am reveling in its liberal supply of fresh air and sunlight."

"But don't you find the stairs an overbalancing disadvantage?" asked an acquaintance.

"The thought of the cozy quarters at such moderate cost colors my climb with the roseate hue of optimism," laughed the artist. "but one of my customers, middle aged and filled with good food and the joy of living, evidently found it a harrowing experience."

"It seemed ages that I waited in the hall after the ringing of the lower bell, and upon hearing the labored breathing of my ascending visitor I ran back for the smelling salts."

"When I had administered all the means of resuscitation at hand she managed to articulate between gasps:

"I thought St. Peter always opened the door."—New York Times.

A little want ad. will accomplish big results.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. ## ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 10

The Man Who Retreats Before His Defeat!

By Herbert Kaufman.

Advertising isn't magic. There is no element of the black art about it. In its best and highest form it is plain talk, sane talk—selling talk. Its results are in proportion to the merit of the subject advertised and the ability with which the advertising is done.

There are two great enemies to advertising profit, and both of them are caused by ignorance of the real functions and workings of publicity.

The one is to advertise promises which will not be fulfilled, because all that advertising can do when it accomplishes most is to influence the reader of your copy to investigate your claims.

If you promise the earth and deliver the moon advertising will not pay you.

If you draw men and women to your store on pretense and fail to make good, advertising will have harmed you because it has only drawn attention to the fact that you are to be avoided.

It is as unjust to charge advertising with failure under these conditions as it would be for your neighbor to rob a bank and find yourself indicted for his misdeed. In brief, advertised dishonesty is even more profitless than unexploited deception.

The other great error in advertising is to expect more out of advertising than there is in it.

Advertising is seed which a merchant plants in the confidence of the community. He must allow time for it to grow. Every successful advertiser has to be patient. The time that it takes to arrive at results rests entirely with the ability and determination you display in the effort. But you cannot turn back when you have traveled half way and declare that the path is wrong.

You can't advertise for a week and because your store isn't crowded say it hasn't paid you. It takes a certain period to attract the attention of readers. Everybody doesn't see what you print the first time it appears. More will notice your copy the second day, a great many more at the end of a month.

You cannot expect to win the confidence of the community to the same degree that other men have obtained it without taking pretty much the same length of time that they did. But you can cut short the period between your introduction to your reader and his introduction to your counters by spending more effort in preparing your copy and displaying a greater amount of convincingness.

You mustn't act like the little girl who planted a garden and came out the next day expecting to find it in full bloom. Her father had to explain to her that plans require roots and that, although she could not see what was going on, the seeds were doing their most important work just before the flowers showed above ground.

So advertising is doing its most important work before the big results eventuate, and to abandon the money which has been invested just before results arrive is not only foolish but childish. It would be just as logical for a farmer to abandon his fields because he could not harvest his corn a week after he planted it.

Advertising does not require faith—merely common sense. If it is begun in doubt and deserted before normal results can be reasonably looked for, the fault does not lie with the newspaper or with publicity—it rests entirely upon the head of the coward who retreated before he was defeated.
